Travelling by Tube

These tube stations are near, with the nearest first:

Moorgate Station: (5 min walk)

- Northern Line (Bank branch)
- Circle Line
- Metropolitan Line
- Hammersmith and City Line
- First Capital Connect Trains

Directions: Go through the ticket barriers and walk straight to the exit marked Moorgate east side. At the top of the stairs, turn right - Finsbury Square is straight ahead, about 500 yards away (3 blocks). You will pass a big Marks & Spencer on your right.

Old Street Station: (10 mins)

- Northern Line (Bank branch)

This is a confusing station! Find Exit 4, which will bring you out on City Road South (East side). Walk down City Road to Finsbury Square.

Liverpool Street Station: (10 mins)

- Central Line
- Hammersmith and City Line
- Circle Line
- Metropolitan Line

After the ticket barriers, go up the stairs onto the main station concourse. Turn left into the arcade of shops and walk the full length of the arcade. You will come out at a circular set of steps at the junction of Eldon Street and Bloomfield Street. You can either walk straight ahead and walk down Eldon Street and Wilson Street, or turn right and walk through the Broadgate office complex which is pedestrianised. you should come out in Wilson Street.

Bank Station: (12 mins)

- Central Line
- Waterloo and City Line
- Docklands Light Railway

Look for the exit for Princes Street, and then walk up Princes Street. to the intersection with Gresham Street, cross over, and walk up Moorgate to Finsbury Square.

By Rail:

If you are coming into a mainline station other than Liverpool Street, Transport for London has a very useful journey planner: visit www.tfl.gov.uk, or e-mail us and we'll see what the best route is.

By Bus:

Routes 43, 76, 141, 205, 214, 271 and 21 all go to Finsbury Square. The bus maps and the journey planner on the Transport for London website can help you plan your route: www.tfl.gov.uk

By car or bike:

Driving to Upkeep is not recommended because parking in London is very expensive - and it attracts the congestion charge. If you need to drive, there is an NCP carpark in Finsbury Square. For motorbikes, there are bays in the Square.

Access:

We are on the ground floor. The building is wheelchair accessible. If you have any queries, please contact us.

Accommodation:

There are several hotels close by. The closest is a Travellodge in City Road. If you plan to stay over, please e-mail us and we'll send you details.
